Submission Type: Response to FDA on Information Request - Dermatographia/Dermatographism
Received on February 24, 2022

Dear Dr. Marks:

Reference is made to BLA 125752 for the initial Biologics License Application (BLA) for mRNA-1273, a novel lipid nanoparticle (LNP)-encapsulated messenger RNA (mRNA)-based vaccine against the 2019 novel coronavirus (CoV; SARS-CoV-2) currently under review with the agency.

The purpose of this submission is to submit a response to FDA on information request - dermatographia/dermatographism received on February 24, 2022.

If FDA has any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (617) 417-4428 or at michelle.olsen@modernatx.com.

This eCTD submission has been prepared by PPD Development LP in full compliance with ICH and FDA guidance. The eCTD has been verified and confirmed to be virus and spyware free. PPD utilizes Palo Alto Traps v7.4. All technical questions should be directed to (b) (6) at PPD (b) (6) or email at (b) (6) @ppd.com.

Yours Sincerely,

Michelle Olsen
